On Campus Incidents 3

We have had to call law enforcement three times this year. Twice for graffiti and once for truancy. We have implemented the Positive Intervention Behavior Support system throughout the whole school. We have support from students, staff and families. We are also supporting parents by looking into a behavioral support matrix for home. Our counselor sees all students in many ways; either through the classroom, individually, or in groups. We are building a healthy relationship with our sheriff'
